

Student Membership Form

Membership of the Council is open to students sharing the Council's aims.

The current rate of subscription is £15.00.

Subscription confers membership to the end of the financial year of the Council, which runs from 1 April to 31 March. Those joining after 1 January will have their subscriptions extended to March of the year following. Membership of CEC also confers entitlement to a free reference membership at the London University Institute of Education Library.

To join the Council, please complete this form and send it to the address below enclosing your membership fee.
